

BBC Complaints to the BBC: March 2016

The BBC answered just over 18,000 complaints from the audience during March 2016. These ranged from a small number of complaints about alleged breaches of editorial guidelines through to a much larger collection of views about programme content and services.

This month included complaints about the forthcoming series of Top Gear, following reports in the press suggesting the team filmed a stunt close to the Cenotaph.

Aspects of the commentary and presenting during this year's coverage of The Boat Races also generated complaints.

The BBC's responses to some recent issues can be read on the BBC Complaints website.
