

Complaints to the BBC: September 2012

The BBC answered almost 15,500 complaints from the audience during September 2012. These ranged from a small number of complaints about alleged breaches of editorial guidelines through to a much larger collection of views about programme content and services.

The comedy Citizen Kahn attracted complaints from some viewers who were unhappy with aspects of its portrayal of the Muslim community.

We also received complaints from viewers disappointed that the final episode of Good Cop was rescheduled due to the recent events in the news.

The BBC's responses to some recent issues can be read on the BBC Complaints website.
